

Learning Menu

For the week of: June 1, 2020

Grade level: 3

Each day you should try to choose one learning activity from each category.

Appetizer

- ◇ 7 Sacred Teachings Yoga https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M_m3b8VeL-w
- ◇ Colouring is a quick and easy way to have a relaxing moment. Below you will find three colouring sheets created by Indigenous artists to choose from. You can print them, or colour from colouring books you have at home.
- ◇ We all get super busy sometimes, but it is important to take a break and be quiet and still. Find a comfy spot out in your yard and lay back. Close your eyes and take a few deep cleansing breaths. When you open your eyes take in the different shapes and sizes of the clouds, what do you see? Can you recreate the images you see in the clouds in a drawing or painting?

Main

- ◇ Dream Box Math
- ◇ A Camping Mathematician activity!
- ◇ Choose 3 of your favorite math games from the previous Learning Menus. You can play one a day if you wish. Have fun!
- ◇ Play I Spy using math words for clues. Example: I spy something that is the shape of a cube. Outside is a great place to play this! Enjoy! Ex. cone, cylinder, centimeters, meters, etc.
- ◇ Problem: Yesterday I ordered pizza from GKs! It came to 35$. How many ways can you show 35$ using bills and coins? Can you show this using only bills? Only coins? If you had 35$ what would you like to buy?

Dessert

- ◇ Join a Skype call with Mrs. Campbell. Invites will be sent out! Show and Tell Week!
- ◇ Draw a picture of yourself today. Write about 5 things that make you special or unique!
- ◇ Read or listen to a story. Find one thing from the story that reminds you of your life. Tell someone about it. How did it help you understand the story?
- ◇ After reading your book, draw a new cover page. What do you think the characters look like? Are they different than the ones in the book?
- ◇ Read the passage on Mi'kmaq culture below. Write about an important woman in your life.
- ◇ Recorder Song: Sailor Song

French Snacks

- ◇ Try one of the French activities posted below!
- ◇ Try the writing activities in the dessert section, in French!
- ◇ Go on a word hunt! Using books or just thinking of words, how many can you think of that have the sound "é/er/ez". Écrivez une liste!
- ◇ Regarde un émission de télévision ou un film sur Youtube/Netflix/Disney+/TV
- ◇ Joindre un appelle Skype avec Mme. Babin (SHOW AND TELL WEEK, bring something you'd like to share with the group!)

In the Mi'kmaq culture Elders are people who have been learning and practicing traditional values and ceremonies. They have and share the knowledge of our past, help to keep us healthy and safe in the present and guide us to a kind and peaceful future.

This week, Elder Donna Augustine of Elispogtog, shares her knowledge on the importance of respecting women and respecting oneself.

On May 5th many people all over the land wear red, this is to show respect for Indigenous women. This red is a symbol for us to remember and honour Indigenous women who are not always treated with kindness.

Elder Donna says that women are highly regarded and respected within her culture because they are the nurturers and care givers; life givers!

Women are gifted spiritually because they have the gift of the ability to have children. Giving life is a sacred responsibility and one of the most sacred things a woman can do. All our children are the most sacred gift from the Creator. If something happens to a child, the mother can feel it; that strong connection is an honour.

In traditional ways men are taught to respect women and women were always seen and regarded as leaders. When European explorers arrived on Turtle Island they requested to speak to the leaders. They were brought to the women which confused the explorers as the leaders within their communities were only men.

Elder Donna reminds us to honour and respect your grandmothers, mothers, aunts, sisters, nieces and friends but most importantly to always have respect for yourself by honouring who you are as a person and being your best possible self!

These teachings can be shared with everyone so that all Indigenous women in the world are safe, healthy and happy.

Camp Mathematician!

Use your Math skills to prepare for camping fun!

Task 1: Welcome to Camp Mathematician! What cabin will you be sleeping in? Solve one of the following problems to find out!

Your cabin is a three-digit number. The sum of its digits is 13. The digit in its ones place is three times the number in its hundreds place. The hundreds place is even. Your cabin number is less than 500.

Your cabin is a 4 digit number. The sum of its digits is 21. The digit in its ones place is 4 times the number in its thousands place. The number in the hundreds place is half of a dozen. Your cabin number is less than 4000.

Task 2: To begin your camp adventure, you and your cabin mates will create a sign for your cabin! You can make it look however you like, but it must have a perimeter of 16m. Draw it out and label the sides. Your sign must include your cabin name, as well as have a border that is a pattern. If you can, use 2-D shapes, and at least one 3-D shape to create some of the letters in your sign. Be creative and have Fun!

Task 3: It's time to eat! Each picnic table in the dining hall seats 6 people. If there are 99 campers, how many picnic tables are needed so that everyone has a place to sit?

Les émotions 3^e-5^e

À l'oral

Comment te sens-tu et pourquoi?
Une question simple à poser mais parfois difficile à répondre. Tu peux répondre dans ta tête ou confier à une personne qui peut te donner de bons conseils.

Raconte un film ou un livre qui t'a fait ressentir de la joie, de la tristesse ou de colère.

Savais-tu qu'il y a des films animés en français sur Netflix?
