

On Literacy Night, there were lots of boys and girls singing their hearts out! All you would need to do was sign a sign-up sheet and when it was your turn, you would pick a song of your choice. There was very beautiful singing - great job everyone! Everybody of all ages sang, even the parents! Karaoke was a great idea to keep everyone entertained. This proves that LOTS of people could be famous same day! And also that they know their Taylor Swift songs! I hope we can do it again!!
