New Business

1. Mrs. Wilson covered March to April Highlights, both school and community oriented.
2. Provincial /District 2017 assessments. Mrs. Wilson provided an overview of how and when the assessments and implemented. Some members expressed concern in regards to assessing children at such a young age and so frequently. Mrs. Wilson as well as the Ms. Gallivan explained that the assessments were based on standard work that is done within the classroom and that more commonly the students do not realize they are being assessed.
3. The Committee continued to discuss the School Improvement plan, this item is ongoing.
4. New future items were discussed such as the ongoing SIP monitoring and the positive behaviour and intervention supports. Also under future discussion was the Reflex Math license renewal, Daily 5 Literacy and Math as well as the K-1 Math project.

Adjournment: 7:00- continued into Cluster meeting. Next meeting June 12th, 6:00pm
