Theatre New Brunswick's Velveteen Rabbit

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT:

There will be no school for students on April 5th because of scheduled Parent/Teacher meetings and NBTA Professional Development meetings.

The presentation of this classic tale was an absolute delight for both our students and staff.

On Friday, February 22nd TNB's The Velveteen Rabbit was presented at Rexton Elementary School.

We want to take this opportunity to sincerely thank RES' Home & School Association for bringing this presentation to our fine, fine school!

RES' 2013 Teddy Bear Picnic

Every year, RES hosts a Teddy Bear Picnic for the students who will be entering Kindergarten in the fall. This year's picnic will be held on Tuesday, April 23rd. Therefore, RES' current Kindergarten students will not have classes on Tuesday, April 23rd.

RES' 2013 Heritage Week

This year's Heritage Week was held from February 11-18th. This year's theme was Water for life - L'eau, source de vie, in recognition of the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization's International Year of Water Co-operation.

Rexton Elementary kicked off this year's Heritage Week celebrations with a school-wide Assembly where Ms. McLaughlin's Grade 4 class presented their Diapers for Haiti project. Other Heritage Week activities included having the students and staff creating a starfish mural for our school lobby, and participating in our annual flag raising ceremony on Flag Day. RES' 2013 Heritage Week also saw our students participating in answering daily Canadian trivia questions for prizes.

Oh Canada, we stand on guard for thee!!

RES' 2013 Winter Carnival Fun!

RES' 2013 Jersey Day $154.20 was raised through RES' 2013 Student Council Jersey Day! These funds will go towards supporting the students and staff at Sandy Hook Elementary School.
